Vulcan-trained Swimmers Do Well At Other Points

The accomplishments of two Vulcan girl swimmers, one now residing in Calgary, have been reported in the past week.

From Kelowna, B.C. where the is holidaying, comes word that Diane Parker, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parker of Vulcan, successfully swam the mile-wide Okanagan Lake recently. And Tuesday's evening Herald reported that Helen Nicol, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dave Nicol, formerly of Vulcan, was one of three members of the General Hospital School of Nursing Staff, who won the free style race at the Calgary North Hill pool on Monday.

Sincere congratulations are extended to these youthful swimmers, to whom much credit goes.

However, in reporting her daughter's success in the Okanagan swim, Mrs. Parker paid a very special tribute to those responsible for building and maintaining the Vulcan Memorial Pool, and to the fine instruction provided. She remarked that previous to coming to Vulcan Diane had received three seasons of instruction, and was still unable to really swim. After one season here she had become a capable swimmer. "No praise is too much for this fine pool and the calibre of training undertaken each year," she concluded.

Judging from the keen enthusiasm shown by youngsters from all over the County, Mrs. Parker's appreciation must be shared by many.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Stewart and sons of Calgary spent Sunday at the Cecil Matlock home, with Garry remaining to spend a visit with his grandparents.

"Open House" Honors Golden Anniversary of Milo Couple

On the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary recently, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hall were feted at open house, held both afternoon and evening, at the home of their granddaughter, Mrs. Joe M. Thomson Jr.

A three-tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. Thomson and decorated in gold and white by Mrs. Gladys Phillips centered the table flanked by bouquets of flowers.

They received many gifts and cards, both from the family and from their huge circle of friends.

In attendance at open house were members of the family representing four generations. The guest book was signed by 56 callers.

They were married on June 28, 1905, at Pickering, Ont. In the spring of 1909, they came to Alberta and established themselves on a farm in the Milo district. They retired from the farm in 1953 and now make their home in High River.

Mr. Hall was quite an active FUA member. He also served on school and church boards in the early years.

Mrs. Hall was also quite a community worker, being very active in the Women's Institute. She also taught Sunday school in both the

Regular Meeting Women's Society

The July meeting of the W.S.W.S. of the E.U.B. Church took place on the evening of July 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lebsack. Mrs. D. Schlerman was in charge of devotions as well as the business meeting. Two very interesting talks were brought to the ladies by Henry Zieher and Howard Stöckburger who have been conducting D.V.B.S. in the E. U. B. Church.

Roll call was answered with a good attendance. It was decided to send rolled bandages to Rev. E. Lang, missionary leaving for Japan, leaving the latter part of the month, and more bandages will be made by the ladies for other missionaries.

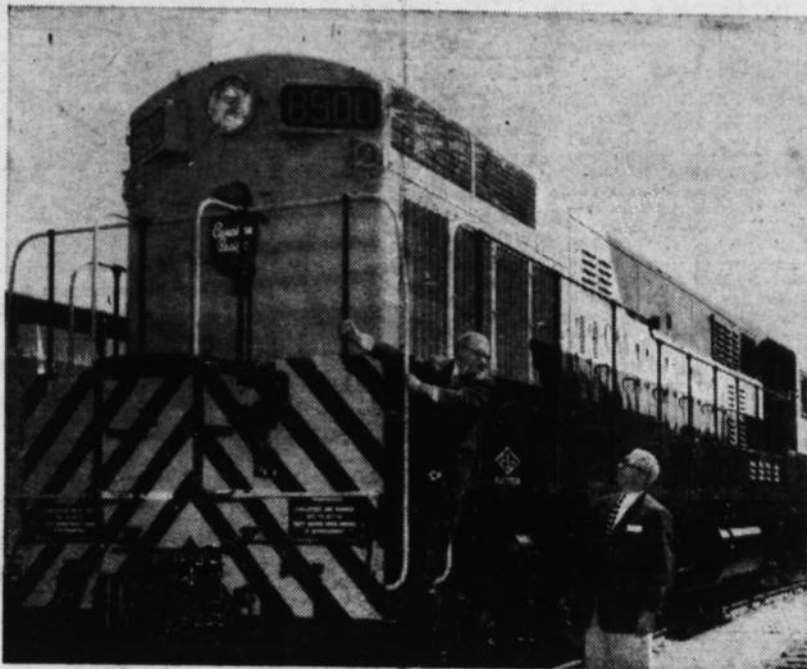

Plans for a study class on stewardship were made to be held this fall for the W.S.W.S. ladies some night separate from the regular meeting.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. J. Schlerman. A very delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Norman Lebsack.

A picnic at Little Bow Park was held in June with members, their husbands and families present.

Mrs. P. A. Wildeman was presented with a beautiful framed picture by Mrs. H. Hilz on behalf of the W.S.W.S. as a "welcome back" gift and Mrs. Warner Becker was presented with a gift for her baby.

Mrs. Con Deal was added to the membership roll.

the most powerful diesel locomotive in Canada. Handed over to the C.P.R. at Kingston recently, the 2,490 horsepower unit boasts a top speed of 75 m.p.h. and more pulling power than any other locomotive on C.P.R. lines. The power-packed unit — another Canadian Pacific first — is equally adept at hauling freight or passenger cars. The new freight or passenger cars. The new freight or passenger cars. The new "Trainmaster" will undergo tests on the Montreal-St. John, N.B. line, and later on the Kettle Valley Division.

SERVICE BOARD NOTES

H. S. Burns, Field Supervisor

We would again like to remind all operators of land in Vulcan

County of the constant weed menace that faces us, and the importance of cleaning up all waste places, some of which are to be found on almost any farm. These waste places are invariably polluted with Canada Thistle. A great many of these places have now dried sufficiently to be cultivated, and many farmers have already done so and thereby reduced the weeds and increased the value of the land. Sow Thistle is also very prominent now and it is little trouble to find, as they stand well above the surrounding crops. They are easy to destroy with simple tools if no sprayer is available, and the infestation is not too large. We would like to see everyone take a hand and destroy these plants as it is impossible to eat on everyone personally.

Weed chemicals are available at the County Office and now is the time to use them. It is not fair for one farmer to faithfully look after his weeds and an adjoining farmer to let his go.

Two of Canada's famous food products, cheese and fish, are eagerly imported by other countries but are not sufficiently popular with Canadians, despite the fact that they are relatively economical in price and very high in food value.

A regular medical checkup after the age of forty will allow the doctor to discover any symptom of those serious diseases such as tuberculosis, cancer, diabetes or a heart ailment before they can become firmly established, and while they are more susceptible to treatment.

The Remples plan to return to India in August. A gift from the Twilight community as well as numerous presents from members of the family, were also received.

Golden-colored roses were wired from relatives at Mayville, New York.

Former Vulcan Residents Mark Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

Some 100 well-wishers called at the home of the H. E. Dunbar farm home eight miles northeast of Grande Prairie during recent open house observances to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

That marriage took place when Shada Hall, daughter of an Iowa minister, became Mrs. Dunbar at Garwin, Iowa, in 1905 and settled down with her former husband who had come from New York State several years before as a boy.

Along about 1917, the family migrated to Canada, selecting the Vulcan area where they farmed for the next 13 years.

When talk of the Peace River country with its new railroad development and expanding markets reached the Dunbars, they came north to see it for themselves, choosing the older settled Clairmont district in which to live the first year.

Later they re-moved to the Percy community where they contributed much to the church life of that district as well as to church affairs in the Twilight community of which they have been residents for the past five years.

Two sons and three daughters observed the golden wedding celebration by message or in person.

They are Doyle of Seattle and Marvel of Prince Edward Island; Olive (Mrs. Eugene Kuykendall) of Twilight district, Freda (Mrs. A. W. Maisey of Vulcan, and Marie (Mrs. Frank Remple).

There are also 12 grandchildren. For the occasion, Mrs. Dunbar wore a dress designed from a hand woven and hand embroidered spun gold silk sari, national costume of India and gift of her daughter, Mrs. Remple who, with her husband Frank, are missionaries on an 18-months' furlough from Kulpahar, India.

The Remples plan to return to India in August.

A gift from the Twilight community as well as numerous presents from members of the family, were also received.

Golden-colored roses were wired from relatives at Mayville, New York.

THE WEATHER

Hot, dry weather has prevailed the past week. Crops are still late but are making good progress. A rain to aid in filling would be welcome. Scattered showers Wednesday morning brought moisture to some districts and cooler weather.

Too Many Errors

Elks Drop First Playoff Game To Lethbridge

Vulcan Elks, with a record of 15 games won against three lost in regular league play this season, picked a bad time to drop their first game to the cellar-dwelling Lethbridge Miners. In the first game of the two-out-of-three semi-final playoffs at Vulcan on Sunday the Elks could do nothing right and the heavy-hitting Lethbridge club took full advantage of eight fielding errors by the Elks to hang a 12-4 defeat on the league-leading locals.

Miners went out in front in the first inning when big Vic Stasiuk blasted out a four-run homer, added one more run in the second and in the top of the ninth collected seven more. Lethbridge hurlers Morrie Welch and George Vaselenak proved effective against the Elks and Jerry Burcher went all the way for the losers.

Second game of the series was to be played at Lethbridge Wednesday night of this week. A victory for the Miners would knock Vulcan right out of the league playoffs. If Elks win, the third game will be played at Vulcan on Sunday Aug. 7, at 6 p.m.

Winner of the Lethbridge-Vulcan three-game series will play the winner of the Granum-Picture Butte series for the league championship.

Tom Shaw Dies After Long Illness

James Lee (Tom) Shaw, an early resident of the Nanton-Vulcan district, died in Edmonton July 28 after a lengthy illness. He was 48 years of age.

Mr. Shaw was born in Stronghurst, Ill., and moved to the Nanton-Vulcan district in 1911. He married the former Velma Richardson at Vulcan in 1930. The family lived in the United States for some years before returning to Vulcan a few years ago and, more recently, moving to Lethbridge, where Mr. Shaw was sales manager at the Bay Service Station.

Survivors include his widow, two sons, James and William of Lethbridge; one daughter, Mrs. Edna May Kyle of Pomona, Calif.; one brother, Roy Shaw of Indio, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. Ethel McMassters of Nanton, and Mrs. Maud McIntyre of Ontario, Calif.

Funeral services, attended by many Vulcan friends, were held at Martin Bros. Chapel in Lethbridge on Monday, with Mr. J. R. Chapman of the Vulcan Church of Christ officiating. Burial was made in the Archmount Memorial Gardens, Lethbridge.

Highway Work

Work of laying the gravel base course between Barons and Champion has been progressing rapidly with favorable weather. This part of building a road consists of placing eight inches of uncrushed gravel topped with four inches of crushed gravel. The crushed gravel is bound with an asphalt binder and is left to stand a year before the hard-surfacing of two inches of fine mix asphalt is applied. Hard-surfacing of the Monarch to Barons stretch is being done this year.

Before the work of hard-surfacing can proceed further north than Champion Highway 23 must be widened and we understand that this will be done next year. It would seem reasonable that part of the road-widening work should be done this year but possibly the road can be widened and the base course applied on the same stretch, all in the same year.

Highway 23 from Vulcan north and then west to High River is apparently being neglected, insofar as maintainer service is concerned, according to the many complaints reaching this office. Highway 24 from the Corner Store north is apparently well maintained and there is no good reason why the Sunshine Trail should not be kept in good condition.

Healthiest In Canada

We always knew the prairies were the only worthwhile place in Canada to live, and now along comes some information from across the line to help substantiate this claim.

Nebraska has been found to be the healthiest place in the United States. Not Florida. Not California. Nebraska. While the report does not say so, we feel sure the study was most impartial. And as Nebraska is more like Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba than it is like any other province, native prairie dwellers can be cheered further that they too must be living in the healthiest area in Canada.

The prairie region of Canada is subject to wide extremes of weather and we should be glad to know that rough weather does not necessarily bring death sooner. It may make life somewhat distasteful at times, but every whiff of that old ozone should make us realize that it's the best in Canada!

Check Stored Grain

Farmers everywhere are cutting down expenses by good farm management. Such practices as checking on stored grain save farmers of western Canada thousands of dollars every year. Mites and beetles can eat profits very quickly if allowed to do so. Several reports investigated recently in the Lethbridge, Red Deer and Edmonton areas reveal some mouldy spots and the presence of mites and beetles in stored grain.

In checking, use a metal rod to hunt for damp, heating or mouldy spots under roof openings, near the edges of the pile, near the floor or base of grain mass if grain is on soil or concrete floor, or if there is a possibility of seepage into pile base. If grain is spoiling, screen it to look for beetles, mites or other insects. Submit sample of insect specimens to your nearest D.A., who will arrange to have the insects identified.

Insect identification is important. If mites are present, turning the grain, ventilating and if possible cleaning it, can usually stop the infestation. Mites are usually found near the surface. Damaged grain should be removed and the surface stirred by shovelling it over if turning is not possible. If fungus beetles are present, this usually indicates that heating and molding is taking place. Removing spoiled and damp material will cause these beetles to die—since they feed on molds and fungus. Turning the grain, cleaning and drying it will do much to save infested stored grain from further spoilage.

Rusty grain beetles are true grain-eating species, and in addition to turning, cleaning and drying the grain, fumigation may be necessary during the summer months.

William Lobay, Alberta's supervisor of pest control, reports that it is estimated that insects and improper storage conditions can destroy a significant percentage of grain. A little time spent in checking can often catch the problem in time to save such grain. Where storage of grain for longer periods is anticipated, proper preparation of storage premises should be an important factor in good farm management.

DO THE OBVIOUS

Some thirty-seven years ago a writer by the name of Robert R. Updegraff, published a little story called "Obvious Adams."

This little story packed such a wallop that the idea of doing the obvious soon became a business problem when solved will be simple.

Today, thirty-seven years later, maxim. For example, Mr. Kettling, of General Motors had a sign put up in General Motors research building in Dayton that read: This the story 'Obvious Adams' has been republished for the umpteenth time. Mr. Updegraff, the author of the original story, has added some notes on how to check the obvious. One of his texts for obviousness is a question. The question reads, "Does the answer check with human nature?" In other words, if your plan or idea cannot be understood and accepted by your mother, wife, brothers, sisters, cousins, or your next door neighbor — you'd better suspect it. It's probably not obvious.

It is amazing how often we neglect to see that the solution to most of our problems is really quite obvious. For example, the solution to the housing shortage is—more houses! Yet think of all the other fancy schemes that have been cooked up to solve the problem! We have had rental control, government mortgages, zoning, and heaven knows how many wild devices as typified fever if the ideas suggested to solve the housing shortage are lake or lake is polluted.

It is always wise to find out if the water where you plan to swim is safe from pollution. Children or government mortgages, zoning, and heaven knows how many wild devices as typified fever if the ideas suggested to solve the housing shortage are lake or lake is polluted.

Lit Brothers, Philadelphia department store, recently conducted a test to determine the selling power of advertising.

Simmons mattresses, a branded, advertised product, sold 15 to 1 over identical mattresses bearing a fictitious brand label which was unknown to the public.

The store then lowered the price $5 on the mattress with the fictitious label. Simmons mattresses still outsold the "unknown" mattress by 8 to 1.

Later a $10 differential was imposed. Simmons mattresses still outsold the "unknown" by 14 to 13.

Mr. Merchant . . . Ask Yourself This Question

"Can I afford to operate a business which is 'unknown' and which sells 'unknown' products?"

Maybe your products are just as good; maybe your store is just as good—or even better—than others. But the Philadelphia department store found that customers don't spend their time in finding out about your store and your products.

The product which tells them is the one that sells them. And the store whose name is a household word, made so by constant, consistent and honest advertising, is the one in "preferred position" by a score of 15 to 1.

Yes, good and honest advertising doesn't cost. IT PAYS!

THE VULCAN ADVOCATE

Time for a QUICK PICK-UP

You don't argue with a locomotive. So a manufacturer of rail equipment has developed a lightweight rail inspection car that carries four people yet can be taken off the track by one man.

Since men who design rail cars, aircraft and other transportation equipment regularly use aluminum to cut down dead weight and increase payload, it is no surprise that aluminum was used to replace heavier materials in many parts of this inspection car. The person who will be surprised is the locomotive engineer who first sees a rail inspector nonchalantly— and single-handedly—hoisting his scooter from the track.

BRANT

Catholic Women's League
On July 21, members of Brant Catholic Women's League met at the home of their president, Mrs. L. Shaw. The meeting opened with prayer, followed by a study of the Mass, lead in turn by Mrs. L. Shaw, Mrs. A. Gingass and Mrs. P. Gallagher. This discussion was followed by the business meeting. Mrs. Shaw reviewed some of the highlights of the recent convention for those who had not heard the report. It was announced that vocation school this year will be under the leadership of Father Leaver from August 8 to 15, details to be announced by him soon.

All members are asked to assist in church cleaning on August 4, after which time they will take turns in tidying the church. Two articles for the fall raffle were shown and it is planned that a Jubilee theme be used for the fall bazaar. It is hoped that a guest speaker will be present at the September meeting at the home of Mrs. N. Flebotte.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served a tasty lunch. The draw was won by Mrs. G. Flebotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken McLean and family are leaving Tuesday for a holiday at Cranbrook for points in the States.

MAJORVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. George Heather and Joanne with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jacobson and family of Enchant spent last Sunday at St. George's Island in Calgary. On the way home they stopped at Cluny to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Gordon.

A welcome sight these days is the cavalcade of gravel trucks dumping their cargo on the road east of the Cluny corner. It is expected the road will be gravelled to the East Majorville school corner.

The oilwell drilling rig that has been drilling out on the lease east of Majorville pulled up stakes during the week and headed south. Whether they found anything of interest out east of course is all a deep dark secret.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clemmons were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Strang Fraser of Cluny.

Remember the days when part of the routine of summer was picking saskatoons and later on going for choke-cherries on the reservation. Now if one wants saskatoons, instead of a trip to the river and a nice enjoyable day with some neighbours it means a trip of almost thirty miles and that seems to be too much of an effort. The last time any of the family went for chokes, one of the custodians of the bushes found them and in his own way tried to find out if the processing would be wine. When told no, it would be jelly, his reactions were to the effect he didn't believe that tale. The family took the hint and headed for home and after setting the car in motion son in-law reached for the cigarettes he had left on the dash but no package was there. Also a bottle of shaving lotion was gone from his shaving kit. That was the end of our excursions for the wild fruits. We don't have much in the wild fruit hereabouts and the annual outings were very much enjoyed. Maybe it's only that time is marching on.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Deitz, Ronnie and Wendy with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beckin were visitors at Banff for a few days during the week.

Mrs. Hattie Clemmons and family of Queenstown were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Francis.

For Joanne's twelfth birthday, Mrs. G. Heather had as guests for afternoon tea, Mrs. Alf Heather Mrs. Bartsch, Mrs. Bert Clemmons, Mrs. Hap Heather and Mrs. M. Clemmons. We believe Joanne enjoyed her birthday even if her own particular friends couldn't be there. She received enough to buy a much wanted camera.

Better Living Threatens Water

The higher the standard of living, the greater the danger of pollution. Improved hygiene means the rapid removal of dirt and waste, which leads to pollution. Greater material wealth means an increase in manufacture, which leads to pollution. Less drudgery means a greater use of machines, which particularly through the processing of food leads to pollution. The more we have advanced, the more waste we have produced, and so expect our lakes and rivers to cope with the means they have often able to do in the past is today asking too much.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Vasselin

Bouquets of gladioli, delphiniums, roses and potted ferns decorated the church of the Nazarene here for the July 22nd wedding of Margaret Gray and Lawrence Vasselin. (The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gray of Carmangay and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Vasselin of Three Hills, Alta. Rev. John Cunningham of Calgary officiated at the afternoon rites. Mrs. Cunningham played the wedding music and Mr. Don Hagen of Lethbridge was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle over ice green bridal satin with white flowers applied on the bodice. Her fingertip veil adorned with sequins fell from a tiara of pearls and sequins and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli, stephanotis and pink Delight roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Esther Johnson, the bride's cousin. She wore a mauve nylon dress with floral headress to match. Bridesmaid was the groom's sister, Miss Phyllis Vasselin and she wore a light yellow net over taffeta gown with matching floral headress. They each carried a cascade bouquet of mauve and yellow gladioli. Best man was Henry Vasselin of Clashesholm. Ushers were James Gray of Carmangay and Russell Vasselin of Brooks.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore an orchid shaded dress with matching bolero and white accessories. Her corsage was of yellow carnations. The groom's mother wore a turquoise two-piece dress with white accessories and a pale pink corsage.

A reception followed in the El Rancho Motel dining room. A three tiered wedding cake flanked by tapers and vases of flowers centered the bride's table. Master of ceremonies was J. Details of these awards are provided to first year students by each principal during the term.

The T. Eaton Company has for the past four years awarded a scholarship during the time of the Toronto Royal Winter Fair to assist one young man to attend any Agricultural College in Canada. The scholarship provides college fees, lodging and board for a four-year course at the Canadian Agricultural College selected by the winner. This scholarship will be awarded again during 1955.

Anyone interested in these scholarships may obtain application forms from your local District Agriculturist.

Before using water from natural sources such as streams or lakes, it should be tested for safety. The use of one of the water purifiers recommended by a doctor, druggist or local health department is advisable. Boiling the water will also render it safe for drinking.

Scouts Essays Win Free Jamboree Trips

Scouts in Falher, St. Albert, Glenwood, High River and Edmonton were among fifty winners in a nation-wide essay contest who will get free trips to the World Jamboree next month.

The names of five Alberta Boy Scouts who have won all-expense paid trips to the Eighth World Jamboree at Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont., August 18-28th, were announced today by F. S. Fry Alberta Provincial Commissioner, The Boy Scouts Association.

These Alberta Boy Scouts are among fifty winners from across Canada in an essay contest sponsored by the Bank of Nova Scotia in co-operation with the Boy Scouts Association. The bank will pay transportation and all expenses of ten days at the Jamboree for these Scout winners.

Selected on the basis of the best essays submitted on "What It Means To Be a Boy Scout." The winners in Alberta are:

Fernand Chailier, 14, of Falher; Larry McDonald, 15, of St. Albert; Clair Shields, 16, of Glenwood; Gary Lomheim, 15, of High River; and Robert Shortt, 14, of 12104-88th St., Edmonton.

"We conducted this essay contest because we realized how much attendance at the Jamboree could mean to a Canadian Boy Scout," said a bank spokesman. "The essays themselves certainly warranted the project."

Among the fifty winners were 15-year-old twins in Montreal and a new Canadian Scout in Toronto who arrived from Germany just a year ago.

Martin Hoyt, who taught two years at Champion, has moved to Lethbridge where he will be employed by Walter E. Huckvale, Barrister.

After teaching one year at Mirror, he was appointed vice-principal of the Champion School. In the summer of 1954 Mr. Hoyt accepted the principalship of the Milk River School in the County of Warner.

In August Mr. Hoyt will have acquired the five years residence necessary for citizenship. Shortly afterwards he will commence his articles with Mr. Huckvale, a prominent lawyer in Southern Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt and their three children are now residing in Lethbridge at 118-7th Ave South.

We go to the show and have a nice and loud conversation about the theme of the show or other things that come into our mind thinking that our comment is what the others paid their admission for.

We blow up and then smash our popcorn bags and enjoy the effect of this bang on the audience. It we don't like to eat our popcorn, because we had too much ice cream or chocolate bars before, we simply throw it piece by piece at somebody, so he can enjoy the show better. If we don't like a scene because it doesn't meet with our taste or because it simply doesn't enter our ingenious minds, we simply explode into laughter, while actually there was no reason at all for a funny thought. And since it is fairly dark there, we tease the girls, sitting in the row before us, as this is the best chance for doing it, and we would never dare do that elsewhere; the girls on their side enjoy this rare chance thoroughly. If, from driving all day long we have tired feet, we just put them on the seat before us, giving the other person a chance to wipe the dirt off with his coat. And imagine, no one objects! And we can do that all for just paying a few cents admission. What a bargain! But here is why we do it: because nobody ever dared tell us to do any better, and nobody ever reminded us of good behavior—a thing we actually should not have forgotten yet.

We should remember that everyone pays the same admission. But

Letter to the Editor

Champion, Alta.

So you are going to the show. Certainly everybody knows what a show is. Don't you think so? Well experience at the Champion Theatre has taught me a different lesson, which rounded up my conclusion, that many people, especially the younger ones do not seem to have the faintest idea of what a show actually is. It is one of the many things in life we take for granted without even knowing their origin and purpose. So let us apply these two definitions. The origin of a story that has been put on film comes from man's desire to entertain others. And the purpose of it is simply that of entertainment and relaxation for those who pay for it. This audience is the main cause of this article, so let me substitute the word 'we' for 'audience,' for a while.

The show we are seeing is meant to give us something, be it joyful or sad, and, the fact that someone dislikes it does not mean that everybody else dislikes it too. There is always someone among the audience who likes a show. But how can he enjoy himself if we don't even give him a chance to hear the dialogue of the film. For here comes what 'we' actually do:

We go to the show and have a nice and loud conversation about the theme of the show or other things that come into our mind thinking that our comment is what the others paid their admission for. We blow up and then smash our popcorn bags and enjoy the effect of this bang on the audience. It we don't like to eat our popcorn, because we had too much ice cream or chocolate bars before, we simply throw it piece by piece at somebody, so he can enjoy the show better. If we don't like a scene because it doesn't meet with our taste or because it simply doesn't enter our ingenious minds, we simply explode into laughter, while actually there was no reason at all for a funny thought. And since it is fairly dark there, we tease the girls, sitting in the row before us, as this is the best chance for doing it, and we would never dare do that elsewhere; the girls on their side enjoy this rare chance thoroughly. If, from driving all day long we have tired feet, we just put them on the seat before us, giving the other person a chance to wipe the dirt off with his coat. And imagine, no one objects! The WIK Applicator

Is not a cattle oiler. It requires only one quart of insecticide per week to keep up to 75 head of cattle insect free. Official tests have been made in support of this statement.

Cattle with access to the WIK APPLICATOR keep themselves insect free as naturally as they chew their cud thereby eliminating the shrinkage suffered by the spraying method. INSECT FREE CATTLE GAIN MORE. Users of the WIK APPLICATOR claim that cattle gain up to 50 pounds more per season.

PAYS FOR ITSELF TEN TIMES EACH YEAR:

The Wik is made of a coil spring wrapped with alternate layers of cotton felt and burlap and covered with heavy canvas. This assembly is placed in the patented applicator with a reservoir at the lower end which utilizes every drop of insecticide and causes the insecticide to feed upward into the wick as oil does in an oil lamp.

Grading of Canada's Grain

(By W. G. Malaher)

It is interesting to note that Canada's grain grading system is frequently the subject of favourable comment abroad.

Only recently, at a Farm Congress held in Kansas, one of the speakers, a milling scientist, emphasized that U.S. wheat is meeting resistance in foreign markets, largely because of variable quality, even in shipments that carry the same U.S. grade. He suggested that one of the troubles was the grading system itself, U.S. standard wheat grading regulations having been practically unchanged since 1916. Nor had there been any attempt to characterize wheat according to milling and baking qualities. He added that many European buyers are looking to Canada for wheat unless the USA improves its grading system and at the same time farmers there grow a better quality wheat, it will become increasingly hard to sell the wheat on a competitive basis in foreign markets.

It is no secret that Canada's grading system and the high standards of quality which have been so carefully drawn up and so rigidly maintained by the Board of Grain Commissioners for Canada, are recognized and acclaimed the world over. It is these high standards which enable customers in distant lands to buy with confidence a certain grade of wheat or other grain.

Our grading system, therefore, is something that we should guard jealously. It has made for the efficient marketing of our grain in the past and it will continue to serve this very useful purpose in the future, both at home and abroad.

Sewing Machines

So many homemakers ask "There are so many sewing machines — which one will I buy." Today's choice of machines gives a wide range to fit the purchaser's needs and purse. No one machine is likely to have all the features you consider desirable, so a compromise is in order in selecting that machine that you consider best suited to your present and possible future needs.

The first point to settle is the kind of sewing for which you are buying the machine. Many homemakers use their machines only for occasional plain sewing, patching mending, darning, or for the making of simple garments. For this work a straight sewing machine is satisfactory. This type may be preferred by the woman whose chief interest is fine dress-making and tailoring and who has little use for machine made decorative effects.

The more versatile sewing needles or zig-zag type machines are designed to handle a wider range in stitch styles and other specialty sewing. These machines, in part, do the jobs intended for the attachments that can be bought for the straight sewing machine — and which are seldom used. Your decision here is whether the specialty job will be done often enough to warrant the added cost.

Another choice is between cabinet and portable machines. A cabinet with well supported legs and sturdy legs gives good sewing support and is ready for instant use. The extra cost of a fancy cabinet may better be invested in useful furniture. However, choices in cabinets allow a selection that will fit in with any type of home furnishings. The portable is the usual choice where space is limited or where a machine must often be moved from place to place. Some portables are fitted with an extension table for greater work surface; all can be set into a heavy worktable flush with the top to give the same stability and work area as a cabinet machine. Quite often it is wise (if you know a good carpenter) to buy a portable and then have it set in a cabinet built to fit your own requirements. This way you get all the shelves, drawers, work surface, etc. you want. The choice between light weight and regular head portables depends partly on how much bulky sewing or mending of heavy fabrics will be done. You also have a choice between long shuttle machines and round bobbin types. The long shuttle mechanism is simple and direct, usually easier and quicker to clean and oil but noisier and not designed for high speed operation — as the round bobbin class.

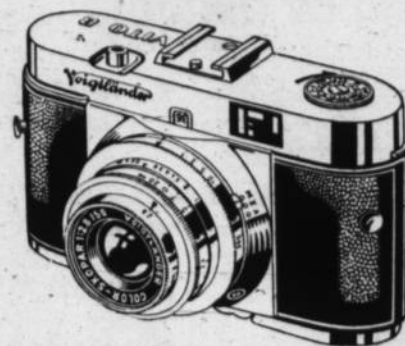

Visit your friends and neighbors, and the dealers and check the features of one machine against another. You want to choose a machine that is easy to handle and operate, is readily adjusted to your varying sewing needs and is easy to care for and keep in perfect running order.

Consideration given to buying a new machine also apply to second hand or rebuilt machines. Knowing the dealer is reputable is even more important, however, because the machine is not new. Many of the second hand machines of the foot treadle type can be motorized at a small cost. It is best not to motorize a machine if it vibrates when foot treadled at high speed.
